Programme for the 28th May 2015

8.30 - 9.00 Registration and Coffee
9.00 - 9.20 Welcome - Paramedic research: taking it to the next level, Professor Julia Williams 9.20 - 10.00 Improving outcomes from out-of-hospital cardiac arrest, Dr Richard Lyon 10.00 - 10.30 Moderated Poster session, Presented by the authors of the posters
10.30 - 11.00 Refreshments and Networking 11.00 - 11.25 My ethical journey (with profanities removed!), Ashley Reed

11.25 - 12.45 Presentations selected through abstract submission - Session 1
i) Paramedic Practitioners and non-medical prescribing: extending the role boundaries, Kim Kirby
ii) The patient’s wishes in decision making; exploring how conveyance decisions are made by paramedics, for nursing home residents approaching their end of life, Georgina Murphy-Jones and Stephen Timmons
iii) A pilot study exploring the accuracy of pre-hospital sepsis recognition in the North East Ambulance Service, Graham McClelland
iv) Recognising and responding to dementia: Interactions of paramedics and people living with dementia, Dr Sarah Voss

12.45 - 13.45 Lunch and Networking or 12.45 - 13.45 Lunch and meeting of the Post Graduate Students’ Group, Els Freshwater and Ursula Rolfe

13.45 - 14.45 Presentations selected through abstract submission - Session 2
i) Findings from a Paramedic professionalism project, Professor Ann Gallagher
ii) The AMICABLE study – Airway Management In Cardiac Arrest – Basic, Laryngeal mask, Endotracheal intubation, Tim Edwards
iii) An exploration of the effects that frequent exposure to life-threatening events may have on a Critical Care Paramedic’s psychological wellbeing, Emma Relf

14.45 - 15.30 Workshops:
    a) Getting started in Paramedic research    b) Successful grant funding    c) Your future: PhD and beyond!
Delegates will be able to sign up for the preferred workshop in advance of the conference

15.30 - 15.50 Refreshments and Networking
15.50 - 16.15 Negotiating the perils and pitfalls of publishing your research Pete Gregory 16.15 - 16.45 Making it work – Paramedic clinical research careers Mark Glencorse & Graham McClelland 16.45 - 17.00 Closing comments and presentation of prizes Professor Andy Newton

Book now at: www.collegeofparamedics.co.uk/events/pre-hospital-research-conference-2015